

FAIRFIELD GOSSIP.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Woods, of Lackey Street, Fairfield, are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a daughter, at Lochiel Hospital.

Mr. Harry Martin, of Wrentham Street, Fairfield, will be off duty for the next week through sickness.

Sgt. First-Class C. Noble, of Fairfield, is due back on Thursday of next week after an absence of six months in the "Old Dart." Sgt. Noble also visited Europe whilst overseas. He will return on the liner Strathaird.

Mr. P. Patterson, of Hamilton Road, Fairfield West, is very ill in Liverpool District Hospital.

The many friends of Mrs. E. Osmond of Carramar will be sorry she has been ordered to bed for a while. She is the popular secretary of Carramar and District Progress Association, and a willing worker for Villawood Parents and Citizens' Association. All hope to see her up and about again very soon.
